great game with great graphics

would recommend 10/10. great game with great graphics would recommend 10/10. Graphic is amazing, maybe is one of the most attractive fact I ever seen in my VR games list. Busy battle, you need to understand the time of countattack to stop enemy, or use teleporting to avoid be surrounded by enemies.

Stand away from anemy and stand still will make quick recover. Boss is make you screaming and overwhelming if you don't battle tacticly. Other 2 weapons are fun as well, espacially the flying blade! Considering the price I will say it's definitely worth it!!! I played untill midnight and quickly fall in sleep:). I played untill midnight and quickly fall in sleep:). Pretty polished, nice enemies and environments. Low key dark soulsy vibe. Need to spam teleport like you would dodge rolling. Haven't reached the end yet, but presume it's going to be pretty short. Would like to have touch pad movement as well as the teleport.. This RPG action adventure game is one of those that think graphics makes a game. In short, they don't. Although visually it's nice, gameplay is horrible.

The beginning of the game gives you some back story, then inserting you into the game world. You're given a choice of three weapons, 2 of which cost some undisclosed currency. The final weapon is the sword, you then practice within the tutorial teaching you the basics.

The first monster you encounter which I will refer to as a wolf, is introduced to you early in the game. After the tutorial you think you have to wait and see when the wolf will attack so you can counter-attack and kill them easily. This is wrong.

The wolf has a near split second delay for the counterattack with no way to know its coming. The sword (a.k.a. the first weapon you get) has a weird delay that causes you not to hit an enemy. This, in turn, counts your expertly timed counter-attack hit to become a regular hit. The game feels bad for you and activates your special ability for that weapon. In this case it's the sword's special.

The special is a cool slash which goes away from where you swipe to cut and instantly kill enemies, making this very useful for the incoming hordes of monsters. Aiming the slashes are very difficult and don't correspond completely with the angle you swipe at.

After a while you realize you can just slowly slash multiple wolves and effectively stun lock them.

The next enemy you face is right after the wolves, and looks like it's made out of tree bark. The tree has multiple attack patterns, such as throwing something, spinning and slashing, or just stabbing. You can just about counter every attack after facing ten or more. Did I mention how they dont let off the spam anywhere in this game? You don't just get to fight one, you get to fight two, and after defeating those, then two more.

So after dying a couple times you can face a mini-boss that looks like a walking lion made out of lava. There are two options you can do to face this guy;

Beat the devil out of it and counter-attack

Just slash back and forth because his attacks are so infrequent that your health regenerates quicker.

No, there is not two of him next. A final showdown event occurs where you fight an extreme amount of the enemies you faced before and then you move onto the next area.

The next area you are faced with two puzzles which are alright. A flying version of the tree appears which still throw stuff at you, and harrass you throughout the rest of this area. Coming up through a valley an outline of your sword appears and you enchant it to gain a discount special ability that you use to fight the real boss.

These first few attacks that come in are simple to counter, but what comes next changes things. He will begin attack one or two of the floating islands, which ones you cannot determine until it is too late, so you will most likely die. If you are somehow lucky enough to stay alive he does the exact same thing again after attacking you with the simple attacks. At this point I died and have had enough of this game.

In conclusion, unless you have an abundance of time to master something, do not, buy this game.

Would like to have touch pad movement as well as the teleport.. could have been a fair game but telaporting in this type of game really sucks. could have been a fair game but telaporting in this type of game really sucks. alright so i wanted to love this game because its really fun but its plagued with issues.

pros: graphically beautiful, weapons are pretty good, love the throwing blade. enemies are really cool !! i liked the goat with the staff reminded me of god of war ! i like the counter sytem alot.

cons: not enough weapons(only three to choose from) and each have thier flaws. the sword is nice medium range but its clunky ands the hit detections is very offand if you swing randomly it gets glitchy, also the super aim is very off when you swing the cut swipes at the enemies (i could aim at the heads and they would go at the legs. the guns are good long range but are very one sided, need different ammo types in stead of super. the throwing blade is probably the best weopon in the game, hit detection is way better and more satisfying than the sword. super is alot better than the other weapons too.

also like to point out that the hits dont feel real, or satisfying and i bet most people are going to be forgetting about the counter sytem and flailing the sword around aimlesly, which will get you killed. the game almost makes you use the counter system, because if you dont no matter how many times you swipe your weapon or shoot your gun the dogs or whatever will kill yuou before you have the chance to think.

i would give this game a thumbs up but the game crashed twice for me and when i reach certain areas during 1 v 1 fights i have spots where i get the steamm loading screen whgich is a dealbreaker !

6V10 in its current state , i hope they bring in some patches because it seems like the developer is hand on with the community! i did get a refund but i will purchase again if the bugs get fixed ! enjoy playign everyone hope you dontr have the saem bugs as i did. alright so i wanted to love this game because its really fun but its plagued with issues.
